About

The Sharjah International Book Fair was launched in 1982 under the sustained guidance and patronage of His Highness Dr. Sheikh Sultan Bin Mohamed Al-Qasimi, Member of the Supreme Council of the United Arab Emirates, Ruler of Sharjah.

The 11-day event is held annually in Sharjah, United Arab Emirates to be a beacon of well-established Arab and international culture, and feature several cultural activities, children activities, discussion panels and live cooking demonstrations.

The Sharjah International Book Fair is much more than a remarkable tradeshow for the publishing industry; it's a passion for literature and critical thinking, contributing to the enrichment of people's cultural and intellectual wealth. It strives for beautiful words, written philosophies and graphic cultures to become essential to all and to make this knowledge shared among Emiratis and the world at large.
